COMICART CONVENTION!

HOTEL COMMODORE, NEW YORK CITY, JULY 2-6

Hotels Sprucing Up for the Democratic Convention

By WENDY SCHUMAN

The 50-year-old Roosevelt Hotel, in new red, white and blue decor, is pressing its history as a political headquarters. The Waldorf Asioria is looking forward to welcoming Hubirt Humpirey and many other top political guests. Even the owner of the little Wentworth on the West Side is investing in American flags, a resh paint job and new advertising brothur.

New York City's hot owners and nunagers are al! smiles at the prospect of lodging some 25,000 visitors expected for next July's Democratic Presidential convention.

N.Y. TIMES

SEPT. 14, 1974

During the convention next summer, major midtown hotels can expect near-total occupancy, with others inheriting a large spillover, at least for the week of July 11. "The convention added to the Bicentennial will make this the biggest summer ror us since the World's Fair," said a spokesman for the Waldorf Astoria.

And the timing is perfect—the midsummer doldrums when the action usually shifts to resort hotels and ew businessmen come to town.

While harmy the answer to the cost squeeze

We have gotten some important news from the Hotel Commodore, the site of the coming Ninth Annual Comic Art Convention! We've been told that New York City will (in all likelihood) be filled to its hotel capacity, from a couple of weeks before the Democratic National Convention until it is over. And this time period includes us, the world's mightiest comic book collectors!

We must leap into action! If you are sure you're coming to the Convention (and you should be for sure this year!) then make your hotel reservation immediately. Maybe (though its not usually necessary) with a day's deposit to insure your reservation.

As usual, send the reservations through me, as a double-check on their safe arrival. I keep separate records in case the hotel questions any of our figures.

I'll see you when the fun begins. Until then, I'll have progress reports circulated, similar to this one.

Now in its fifth year, the Comic Book Marketplace is a one-a-month show at the Hotel Commodore. Designed and managed by comic book people for comic book people, the show is a regular meeting-place for fans, and collectors who love their field of interest, and who feel good about having a place of their own to keep in touch between the big comic art conventions."

It looks like an indoor flea market, and that's what it is. But don't expect to find horsehair sofas or souvenir coke bottles or stamps or coins. This is a specialty show, and that specialty is comic books, in all their four-color glory!

Don't miss a chance to join the collectors at the source, Phil Seuling's Comic Book Marketplace!

T.B.G. AD RATES TO INCREASE AS OF JANUARY 1, 1976!

Effective January 1, 1976 with TBG #114, the new ad rates listed on page two of this issue of TBG will go into effect. All the ad rates will change except for classifieds (which have been the same price since TBG #1).

This was brought about mainly by the drastic jump in postal rates. It's going to cost us a lot more now to mail TBG each week. But also, printing costs and just about everything else has gone up since we last raised our rates.

Just to brag a bit about our record on raising ad rates, the price of our 1/8, 1/4 and 1/2 page ads are the same now as they were in TBG #13 when our circulation was only 4000. Now we print and mail over 8000! And back then our full page rate was only $1.00 cheaper than now...$38 instead of $39. I hope you'll agree that we've certainly kept the line on ad rates, since TBG #13 was out nearly four years ago! Let's hope it's another four years before inflation makes us have to raise the rates again!

Any ads received at the old rate after January 1 will be invoiced for the difference. We'll still print those ads and trust that the invoices will be paid, because we know it's important for ads to be printed as soon as possible.

Take care... Have a Happy Christmas and a Merry New Year (or is it the other

...not if you want to sample the full flavor of SPACE & TIME. The scope of this fantasy fiction magazine is too great to be contained in a single issue of forty digest-sized all-offset pages.

The special all-horror issue pictured at left, for instance, cover-featuring the story of a monster from the frozen wastes, "Spawn of the North," along with the rural terrors of "Tellus Mater," would leave the reader with the impression that S&T features exclusively tales of the supernatural.

with the impression that S&T features exclusively tale of the supernatural. The latest issue, at right, cover-features a tale of ancient wizard's curses and dooms, "None Return From Dead Merasha," along with the yarn of a farmer turned swordsman by an unholy "Servitude," and the revenge-crazed mutant of "Eros Ex Machina" (sequel to the same authors' "Swiss Movement" in the June 1975 ANALOG), may lead to the conclusion that S&T is dominated by swords. & sorcery and science-fiction.

may lead to the conclusion that ser is dominated by swords. A sorcery and science-fiction. Past and future issues will give equal arguement to a preponderance of comic strips, space opera, old style pulp heroics, pure and simple fantasy, outrageous humor and any number of sub-genres of the fantastic. THESE ARE ALL COMPLETE STORIES WITH 44 PAGES OF ART. WITH ORIGINAL ART GOING FOR PRICES EXCEEDING COMMONSENSE, IT WOULD BE AN EXCELLENT INVESTMENT PLUS A SHEER JOY FOR TODAY. Price? For the complete story (44 pages of art) only $130 per story.

That's right, only $130 per complete story. All art is in very fine condition.

If you are rather "stuck for funds" I would be willing to sell a story for only $85, providing you allow me to keep three pages of my choice. I know that many of us would like to have ORIGINAL TWICE-UP ART, but simply can't afford the absurd prices many and most dealers ask. Hames Ware, Co-Editor of WHO'S WHO OF AMERICAN COMIC BOOKS, helped to identify the art. I have WSA #716. You might take a second to notice the full page ad I have in Overstreet #5 opposite page 112. I am the current Editor and Publisher of THE CLASSICS READER, a fanzine devoted to the educational, documentary and historical comics. You ought to get a sub, only $3 for six huge issues. Number 6 is out next month. 50¢ can get you a sample of our publication, which is really put out by a 'cast of thousands.' TRY US.

FREE PLUG: You really ought to drop Jerry Bails a note and tell him you want the first 3 issues of WHO'S WHO. If you REALLY enjoy fine art, artists, and their history you'll, sooner or later, get the WHO'S WHO. It, too, is a bargin.

P.S. I STILL HAVE A FEW (17 pages) OF THE ART BY ANGELO TORRES - who did the comic 'Man Without A Country' --only $18 per page.

5.) We ship subscriptions once a month, usually right at the end of the month. We take great care in attempting to foil the insidious plot of the Postal Service. As any collector knows, there is a directive in every Post Office ordering all workers to destroy any package which looks like it contains comics. We put our comics in plastic, protect them with cardboard and so forth but it doesn't always work. We will ship by U. P. S. but to do so, we must have your street address. For some reason the Postal Service won't let U. P. S. deliver to your Post Office box.

ATTENTION F.F. FANS::

I am offering these Marvel Comics for sale because the price of comics has risen so much that if will be impossible for me to complate this collection. I am trying to put a fair price on these, for I want to get iid of them and I am not trying to make a profit. If you feel imp price is in any try too high or unfair, please send me an offer. These are for sale as a lot and the lot will not be broken. With the coming of the 1976 Frice Guided I amenton that some of these books may double in value as seen by some price trends over this last year. Buy now before the price goes up.

Well, here goes, my first ad in more than a year, a lot of good comics, art and animation material here. I need the money so I had to cull out some things from my collection. First off, SATISFACTION GUARANTEED ON ANY THING PURCHASED. I'm kind of strapped for cash right now so any proposed trades would have to be good ones (I'd probably want art or animation material for my own collection). Please include adequate postage for all orders and if you require confirmation or answer, please include an SASE. Good luck, there's some nice stuff here . . .

COMIC BOOKS

MOTION PICTURE FUNNIES WEEKLY 1

This is the big one. The first appearance of Sub-mariner. 1939 issue of which there are only four known complete copies existing plus a damaged one (which sold for $2,000-see Price Guide). ALL copies were found at the publishers estate. This particular copy will be the only one of two that will ever be up for public sale (I have an option to buy one which I will most certainly utilize). This comic does not belong to me, I am merely acting as agent for this well-known collector who does not wish to be hounded by the Warren Storobs of this world. All negotiations will take place between this collector and any interested parties through myself. His firm asking price is $5000. If there is any doubt as to the authenticity, Mr. Bob Overstreet and Mr. Bruce Hamilton will be glad to vouch for the book's being everything that was written about it in the Price Guide. Interested parties may call or write.

Remember, on minimum bid items you might get it for the minimum listed. That is, if you bid just the minimum bid figure and no one else bids then the book is yours!

MARCH OF COMICS 20 Donald Duck in "Darkest Africa" another Barks rarity in poor to fair condition but complete. $150.

MARCH OF COMICS 46 Donald Duck in "Race to the South Seas", Barks, Very fine condition. $450. BARKS FIRESTONE GIVEAWAYS:

The rare giveaways featuring Barks Christmas stories.

1944. Near mint, except for small signatures

on cover, $325

1945. Very good, consensus opinion has this original Barks "Donald Duck's Best Christmas" story as the best that appeared in the Firestone giveaways. It is certainly the rarest and most sought after, $375.

1946. Near mint, "Santa's stormy visit" is the Barks original story in this one, $325.

These are the first four Firestone giveaways and the hardest to get. If anyone wishes them all they may have them for $1200.

DONALD DUCK FOUR COLOR 29 Fine with slight spine roll and two 1/16" chips on bottom of glossy cover, $600.

DONALD DUCK FOUR COLOR 62 Fine with slight wear on spine, white pages. A real rarity here: The stories are reversed! That is, "Terror of the Swamp" is the first story, not "Frozen Gold". It was printed that way and is the only 62 that I've ever seen with this unique idiosyncracy. Minimum bid is $300.

ORIGINAL ART AND ANIMATION MATERIAL

I have a large (16½"x15½") painting which was the ORIGINAL COVER PAINTING for the 1940's Big Little Book, "Mickey Mouse in the World of Tomorrow". It is extremely colorful with vivid reds, blues and yellows. It is gorgeously framed under glass with a linen liner and an ornate thick gold leaf frame. Cost of framing alone was $75. Most of the BLB covers were destroyed. I was fortunate to have bought the ONLY two Mickey Mouse covers to escape and I am selling this truly unique item for $1,000. Remember, this is one of only two Mickey Mouse original BLB cover paintings in existence. (Photo is of the Big Little Book itself which is just in average condition).

UB IWERKS SPECIAL

A few months ago I uncovered a cache of beautiful Ub Iwerks lobby cards from the 1933-36 period. The cards are in vivid color with a glossy varnish finish (an expensive process, even in those days). I brought 35 single cards to both the summer Oklahoma City and Houston conventions. I sold all but one for $50 apiece. Most of the people who bought them were old-time collectors who expressed amazement that such eards were ever issued for six to ten minute eartoons. The Powers Company for whom Iwerks produced the eartoons evidently was the only company ever to issue color lobby cards for short certoons - not even Disney ever did it:

cards are 14x11 and the colors will knock you out! I would like to sell the cards by sets (that is, four cards to a set with original envelope) as there are no more single cards available. However those sets marked with an asterisk I may split up if I get enough orders for single cards. Also color xeroxes are available for any cards for $2.50 apiece. However I cannot fit all of the card onto the xerox copy.

Each set is in almost mint condition and are priced at $200. Individual cards are $50:

Balloonland (pictured)
Sinbad the Sailor ( " )
The Three Bears
The Brave Tin Soldier
*Puss and Boots

Jack Frost
The Headless Horseman
Old Mother Hubbard
Summertime

*Puss and Boots *The Valiant Tailor

*The Bremertown Musicians *Simple Simon

*The Queen of Hearts
Note: Most of these cartoons have become public domain and the actual films are becoming available from film agencies. Some of the titles were changed during re-release, however. Balloonland is called "The Pincushion Man", The Valiant Tailor is "The King's Tailor", etc. If you ever happen to see any of these lwerks cartoons don't miss the opportunity. I've seen "The Headless Horseman" and "Pincushoin Man" and they are awesomely good. For those who think that the musical score for cartoons are a minor aspect of the medium, be prepared for a redefinition after listening to Carl Stalling's musical manipulations in these productions.

I also have three of the Iwerks one sheets (original movie posters, 41x27) from the same period. They are: Summertime -absolutely beautiful, $200

Sinbad the Sailor, $175 Little Boy Blue, $175

I also have the Iwerks stock sheet which is not nearly as pretty as the above, it's "The Wise Hen" -$50.

Another rare Disney item. The Mickey Mouse Globe Trotter map of the world with Mickey, Dippy the Goof, Pluto, Minnie, etc. A sought after item, $200. NEW CON

Bob Polio, and, of course the dynamite front cover drawing by Martin Greim, which is pictured here. The Barks drawing is complemented by three pages of conversations between Carl, his wife Gare and Newcon representative E.B. Boatner (you say you don't know about Barks' Tall Duck Period? Read the interview. Three unpublished photos of Barks accompany the article.

During Newcon, Bob Cosgrove, who wrote Gil Kane's biographical piece in the program book, was approached by Gil and asked if he might use Bob's piece as his official biography at all future cons. Yeah, he liked it! Bob also did a short piece on Archie Goodwin and Marty Greim did a nice spread on Joe Staton. Bill Desmond's piece on Harvey Kurtzman really captures the special genius of this great satirist. 8½x11, 32 pages for $2.00 plus 50c postage—get 'em while they last!

Also, thanks to Bill Devine for typing and putting this ad together. Bill recently published the second issue of the Predator which is featured in Blazing Violence 1 (32 pages, 8½x11). Also featured with The Predator (The self-styled executioner of mob hoods, by Larry Blamire) is Sully McStew (Boston's Drunken Crime Fighter, by Bill devine). Be sure to send for your copy, $1.25 postpaid from Bill Devine, Box 222, Allston, Mass. 02134

Newcon was a good fan con and we'll stack our program book with anyone's. We've had requests for copies from the Disney Studios and have had multiple orders from people all over the world (New Zealand, England, etc.). It features original art made especially for the book by Barks (Donald Duck in a Pilgrim outfit no less), Kurtzman (Annie Fannie, of course), Gil Kane, Joe Staton (a great drawing featuring every character that Joe's ever worked on), Fred Fredericks (a nice Mandrake), a unique Krazy Kat rendition by

EQUINOX is back!!!

It's been over six months since EQUINOX #2 came out. At last, issue number three is at the printer and will be ready for immediate delivery around Christmas time.

JUST WHAT IS Equines, YOU ASK???

EQUINOX is art ...

Amply signified by the beautiful art at the right, EQUINOX's artistic magnificence is unique to the field of graphic illustrating. Top-notch artists such as Gene Day (who did the striking cover), Larry Blake, Phil Laskowski, Joe Fralavas, Rick McCollum, Angus J. MacLeod, Bill Morse, Shawn Murray, & B.C. Boyer are all represented within. Virtually every page has a piece of art, whether it be accompanying a story or article or merely standing alone, and each illustration is strange and thoroughly captivating in its own ynique manner. Besides the many miscellaneous illustrations, there are also two fine comic strips drawn by the superbly talented Angus J. MacLeod.

They say that one picture is worth a thousand words. The fine art in EQUINOX will leave you speachless.

This issue we present four excellent fantasy tales to whet your literary apetite and quench your prosaic thirst. First is "From the Beep", in which author Gregory Nicoll creates a bixare new mythos surrounding the possible existance of that evil race of shark-men known only as the Raandesse and thrusts the reader into a tale of unnamable horror and death. Dan Beck's "Starwalker" concerns the adventures of Jon Tess, agent for the I.E.C., as he steps through a weird dimensional portal and is flung from world to world in a never-ending quest. Greg Nicoll elaborates on Lovecraft's Cthulhu Mythos as he tells of "The Unusual Case of Frederick Harrison". Jessica Salmonson between you a commelling tale of love and death as a lonely

"The Unusual Case of Frederick Harrison". Jessica Salinobrings you a compelling tale of love and death as a lonely man comes face to face with "Carmanda".

As well as being masterfully written by four of fandom's most talented writers, these stories are profusely illustrated by the artists mentioned above:

Bill Morse has turned in a fascinating, in-depth article entitled "A Guide To the Fan Artist", which explains the different hows and whys of fan (and professional) artistry. A must for all fans who aspire to become pros or for fans who just want to better their work. Gregory Nicoll has provided a study of "The Life and Work of Howard Philips Loweraft" in which he briefly accounts HPL's literary carreer and growing popularity since his death almost forty years ago. Dan Beck provides us with some small "Film Clips", where he gives us news on upcoming fantasy films. This is a very short forerunner to his much longer regular column which will begin in issue number four.

THE SPECIFICS: EQUINON #3 is printed completely offset on 60 lb. white paper with a slick, coated cover. The size is 8½" x 11" with a wraparound binding. It contains sixty pages and sells for 75¢ plus 25¢ postage...an even dollar. Surely not too much to ask for such a high quality production.

Like everthing else, EQUINON has been affected by inflation. Printing costs are skyrocketing, postage and advertising costs are going up. In order to keep EQUINON going, I need your support. The best way to do this is with a subscription. The next four issues will be sent to you immediately after publication for $3.50. This a fifty cent savings over the single copy price and it helps me get started on future issues. The first fifty people to order a single copy or a subscription from this ad and mention TBO will recieve the first end second issues of EQUINON absolutely free. If the orders go over fifty, I'll keep this up until my supply is depleted.

Send all orders to the following address and please make all checks or money orders payable to Neal Blaikie. Thank.
